GETTING TO KNOW TOASTMASTERS

We provide a supportive and positive learning experience in which members are empowered to develop communication and leadership skills, resulting in greater self-confidence and personal growth. During the course of the meeting you will be a witness to our members taking on some leadership roles that include:

Sgt. at Arms calls the meeting to order, reads the Toastmasters Mission, makes a few short comments, and introduces the club's President.

The Toastmaster of the Evening (TMOE) is the emcee for the meeting. The Toastmaster begins by introducing guests, making a few short comments, then introduces and turns control to the General Evaluator.

The General Evaluator explains his or her duties and introduces the evaluation team: Timer, 'Ah' Counter, Grammarian

The Table Topics Master helps increase extemporaneous speaking skills by asking members to speak for 1-2 minutes about a surprise topic.

Evaluators provide encouraging, positive, and constructive feedback

Club President asks for comments from the guests, reviews business, makes final comments, and adjourns
